

Proposal for the KUSCO Programs

KUSCO supports holding of various S&T meetings such as conference, forum, symposium, seminar, and workshop.

US-Korea Joint Meeting Program aims at promoting scientific collaboration between Korea and the United States, and the proposed meeting should involve 20% or more of speakers by scientists without Korean heritage. Any S&T-related organizations or associations in the U.S. can apply for this program.

KSEA Chapter Meeting Program supports local chapters of the KSEA for developing and maintaining their regional S&T networks among Korean-American researchers, and the proposed meeting should involve a young generation program of workshop or seminar. KUSCO will match the cash amount provided by the KSEA Headquarter up to $3,000. Participation of scientists without Korea heritage is not required.

For the application of the Participation in S&T Meetings, please submit parts A and C along with additional documents shown below:

1. Acceptance letter for presentation from conference organizing committee or institution
2. Representative materials for presentation such as an abstract of the paper or posters
3. Curriculum vitae (maximum three pages)
4. Information on the conference and organizing institutions (brochures, pamphlet etc) that may be used for evaluation of the application project.
